

Bruce Weber

Bruce Weber is Founder and President/CEO at Weber Group, an independent consulting firm that assists social-sector organizations in realizing their potential and achieve long-term sustainability through transformational execution.

Bruce brings over 20 years of experience to the for-profit and non-profit community, working with startup, growth, and mature organizations. He assists in strengthening organizations through, strategic planning and visioning, organizational development, leadership and board development, board recruitment, and board onboarding, all with an emphasis towards mission attainment and fulfillment.

As a BoardSource Certified Governance Trainer, Bruce delivers cutting edge tools and methodologies to assist in building the right governing board to support the organization. His approach to planning and strategy provide focus in helping organizations build capacity for long term sustainability. Having served in many roles on non-profit boards, Bruce is qualified to provide the guidance and tools necessary to make a successful impact on an organization. Bruce works with numerous non-profit organizations spanning Arts and Culture, Community-Based, Human Services, and Education.

Prior to Weber Group, Bruce held a variety of positions in the technology industry with Microsoft and Hewlett-Packard.

Bruce holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business and Management from the University of Maryland, College Park. He is a Certified Governance Trainer with BoardSource. He has trained with National Arts Strategies offering practical business tools for the Arts and Culture non-profit sector. He is a participant in the Virginia G. Piper Charitable Trust ATLAS Initiative (2014 – 2016) and (2016 – 2018) leading organizations through a comprehensive organizational assessment in partnership with Susan Kenny Stevens, author of Nonprofit Lifecycles, A Stage Based Approach. Bruce is a Founding Member and Lifecycle Consultant of the Nonprofit Lifecycles Institute, a national organization that assists nonprofits in increasing their capacity to fulfill their missions thus strengthening our cities and neighborhoods.

Leveraging his professional knowledge, Bruce is passionate about the Desert Botanical Garden and is serving his third term as a trustee. In addition, he serves on the Advisory board of the Assistance League of Phoenix and is a graduate of Valley Leadership Institute Class 38. He enjoys cycling, hiking, guitar and exploring the outdoors.